Benefits: Why Take this Class

Get Clarity on Your Life Purpose.

You will understand yourself better, specifically, how you are wired up to make a contribution to the world.

Be Supported on Your Journey.

You will work alongside other people seeking to find and live their calling. You will be accompanied by an experienced guide on your journey. You don't have to figure it all out on your own!

Leave with a personalized plan to live your calling.

With help, create a plan that will move you from living in the ordinary to living your calling.

Start Living Your Calling Sooner.

You will be equipped with practical information and tools to harness your time, energy and money so you can start living your calling sooner.

Your facilitators, John and Rena, commit to:

- Present useful information on how to live your calling.
- Maintain a safe group environment for personal sharing.
- Keep information shared by participants confidential.
- Provide support for your journey through this workshop.

We ask you to commit to:

- Attend each session.
- Do assigned homework to the best of your ability.
- Participate in group discussions.
- Keep information shared by other participants confidential.

We offer this class at no cost, this time only, with the understanding that:

- We will record the webinar for use at Simply Great Live's discretion. No audio of group discussion or questions will be used in any other form without prior consent.
- After the class is finished, you will participate in an interview with John and Rena to provide feedback on your experience.
- You may be requested to provide a testimonial of the workshop through short video interview. This testimonial will be optional.
